Course Description

The Level 3 Award in Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools (RQF) is an accredited online qualification by OFQUAL in the UK, tailored for Teaching Assistants (TAs). Our program for teaching assistants is designed to accommodate various supportive roles within educational settings. Whether in primary, secondary, or SEN environments, its goal is to enhance individuals' abilities in facilitating the growth of children and young people.

Emphasizing the well-being of children, effective communication, and building professional rapport, the program is suitable for those aiming to become teaching assistants or already serving in such capacities. Offering foundational training, this course is accessible to all, without requiring prior qualifications or expertise, providing an entryway into the field for anyone interested.

Course Structure

Unit 1: Communication and professional relationships with children, young people and adults

Unit 2: Schools as organisations

Unit 3: Understand child and young person development

Unit 4: Understand how to safeguard the well-being of children and young people

Assessment

Written Assignments

Duration

The course provides modules that can be completed at the learner's own pace, allowing for completion within a week or spread out over a period of 4 months. Nonetheless, access to the course expires after a year, and there is a re-enrolment fee.
